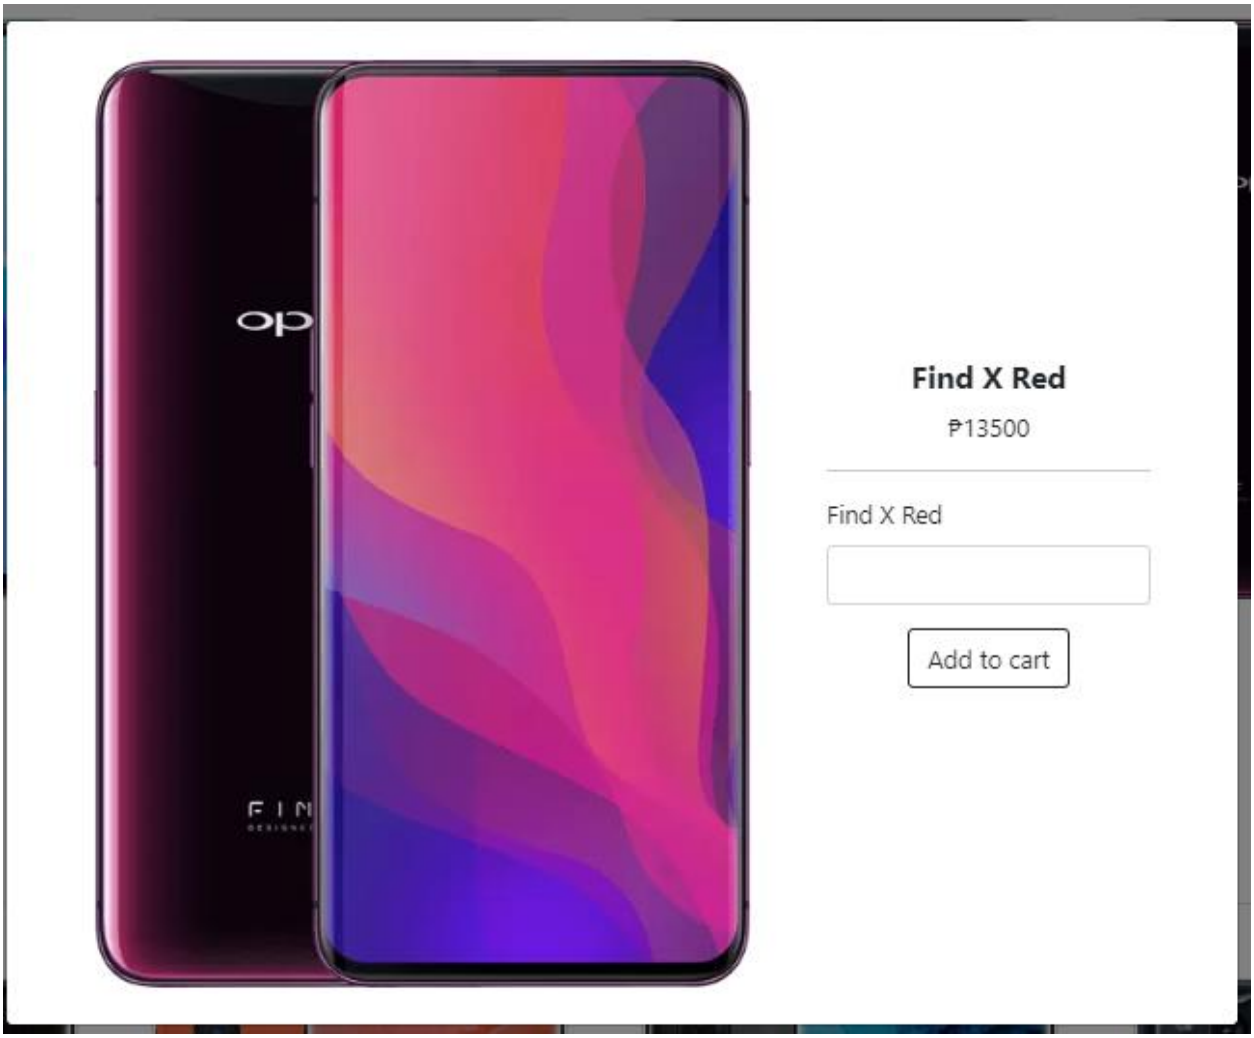
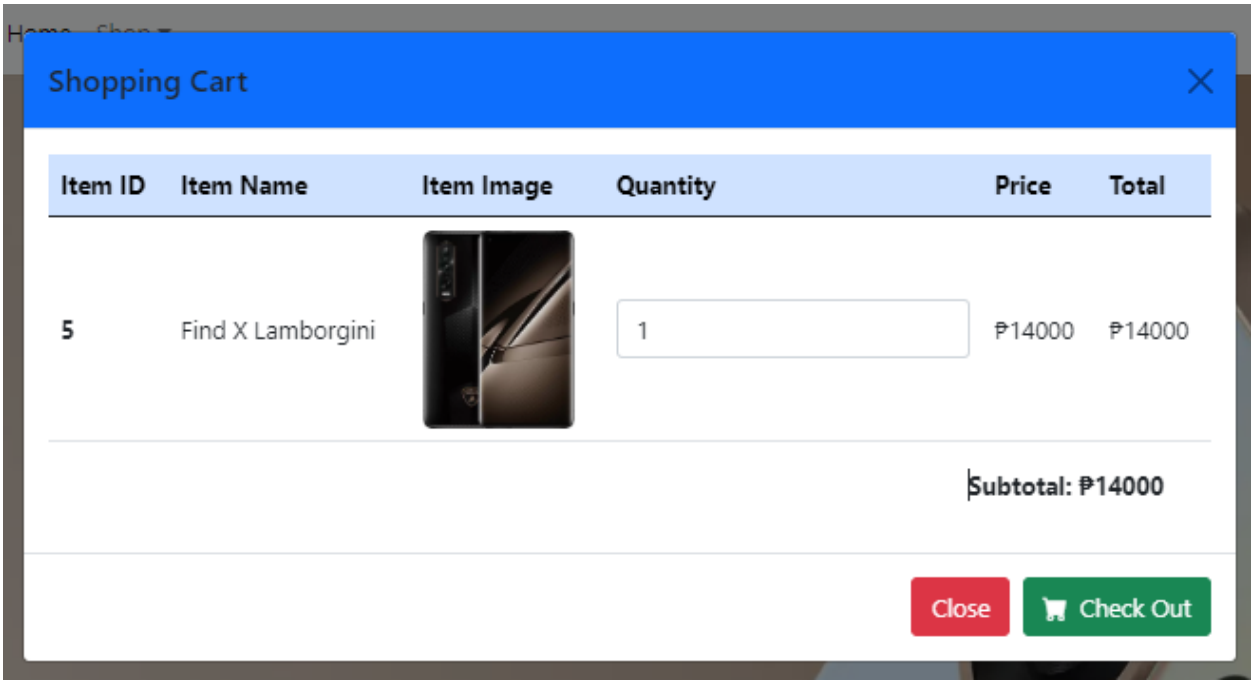
This is the bottom part when you scroll down the page, you can find various elements (cards) added to make it real time. You have to click Add to cart button to perform the javascript codes that we have applied.



It shows the selected model of the phone you selected then you have to put the quantity then click again Add to cart to submit it.



This modal shows after you click Add to Cart button. It will show the quantity and models selected including the total amount which is computed .
